

Living The Change

Change means Transformation

- Core conversion of life means putting Christ at the center.
- Real change and transformation brings purity of heart
- Focus on Jesus brings clarity of purpose and allows for all things to flow from a heart searching after God.

Conversion of life in Community

- Community sharpens our pursuit of God
- Commitment to others eliminates selfish ambition

A Conversion of life as Change

- Transformation is a Constructive response to change
- Other people call us to change and transform

Actions that bring Conversion of Life

- Practicing the Presence of God
- Keeping Death Always before Us.
- Fill your tool box with basic trustworthy tools
- Control your thoughtlife

Conversion of life means

- Living out a Baptismal Covenant
- Being Great Commandment/Great Commission People

Questions to ask:

1. What kind of Follower Am I?
2. Am I conscious of where I am with God throughout the day? Am I constantly turning to him.
3. Are you thinking about tomorrow or are you asking: How will I make the most of Today?
4. Where are your "Go too" tools present in your day and how did you put them to work today?
5. What thoughts trouble your day? What does the Bible say about them? How did you turn them over to Christ?
6. Did you allow yourself time to be quiet with God today? How can you do that more? Try doing that right now.